Brianna is a singer, actor and educator originally from Sonoran Desert and has a Bachelors of Music from the University of Arizona. Celebrating her 8th year of teaching Brianna enjoys integrating fun into skill acquisition. Outside of the classroom, Brianna is passionate about ESL, language learning, and New York City History! She can be found singing with her band The New York Nightingales or leading tours to The Statue of Liberty. She cannot wait to make music and memories with your students this year, as we celebrate just how fun acquiring knowledge can be!
